Dear Chairman Garret, Chairman Jordan, Representative McClintock and Representative Mulvaney:

On behalf of more than seven million senior activists, 60 Plus thanks you for proposing RSC FY2012 Budget: Honest Solutions as the first step in the process to preserve the fiscal responsibility of the United States and put us back on track towards fiscal sanity. We need to support leaders who work towards balancing the budget and better preparing our country to deal with the future for ourselves and our families. We all know rampant government spending has increased to dangerous levels despite voter opposition.

Thanks to your outstanding leadership, this groundbreaking proposal, if successful, will help the nation achieve long-term stability and help the U.S. end the reckless spending that has crippled our economy.

We applaud your efforts and those of others in leadership who have responded to the overwhelming message voters sent to Congress in November 2010. I cannot stress strongly enough that senior citizens and soon-to-be seniors have to live within their budgets, and as such, voted in record numbers last November to send a strong signal Congress that the government should do the same.

Sincerely,

James L. Martin
Chairman
